

I am very disappointed to hear that Sinclair Broadcasting has made a decision to require its 62 local stations to air a anti Kerry documentary days before the election.

The public airwaves are free to Sinclair and it has an obligation to serve the public, interest not to control and manipulate the public for their profit.

If Sinclair moves forward with this manipulative decision, I think that there license should be revoked

Diane Forst
Concerned Citizen